

The institute has two best practices that our whole teaching and non-teaching staff with students give efforts to achieve the target of best practice.

Title of the best practices-(A) “Improving the greenery of a college campus by the construction of botanical garden and tree plantation .

- To preserve the various species of flora.
- To make the college environment eco-friendly
- .To Increase student participation in tree plantation activities.
- To make an aware student for maintaining a proper balance between the human and environment.

(B) Developing collaborative steps with other institution and industries for evolvement of the college

- Faculty, apprentice, volunteer and student section through (Guest lecturer Apprentice Workshop ) Interaction agreed upon between collaborative college government
- Carrying out different awareness programs seminars and symposium workshop specialized training
- Exchange of resource person Implementation of different c s r and or socio economic and involve mental project Exchange of ideas and data that are required for conducting any research project